HOW IT ALL BEGAN

In 1928, during the height of prohibition, the original 5-8 Club opened its doors in South Minneapolis on the corner of Cedar and 58th St. In those days, the Club operated as a “speakeasy,” serving beer and liquor illegally to its thirsty patrons. During its time as a “speak,” it was widely known as the 58th Street Club, located out in the country and just adjacent to the Wold-Chamberlain Airport. When Prohibition was repealed on December 5, 1933, the 5-8 Club went “legit” and became widely known for its burgers and wide selection of beers. Over the years, customers began referring to the restaurant as the 5-8...Eventually it stuck.

In 2002 the 5-8 ventured to the other side of the river when the 5-8 Tavern and Grilled opened in Maplewood. The Maplewood 5-8 quickly became a neighborhood favorite for its great burgers and exceptional value.

In October of 2004, the 5-8 founds its newest home here in Champlin at the 5-8 Grill and Bar.

While the history of our three locations is quite different, our intentions for all three are exactly the same... To offer you the best food value in the Twin Cities... Great burgers, famous beer, generous portions, and thoughtful service.

We hope you enjoy your meal and return often to the 5-8.

|--|------|
| Speakeasy Burger | 5.50 |
| We named this burger after our roots as a “speak” in South Minneapolis. We created our own tangy ranch sauce and added Swiss cheese, lettuce, tomatoes and bacon. | |
| “Big Jim” | 6.99 |
| A twist on the double cheeseburger. This one comes with American, Swiss and Bleu cheeses plus a bit of Heinz 57. Served with chips just the way the “big guy” always ordered his burger. | |

THE SAUCY SALLY

Lucy's younger sister. Born on May 8, 2005. She's making her public debut! A half pound burger stuffed with our secret sauce and topped with American cheese, shredded lettuce, raw onions, and a smear of Thousand Island Dressing. Make sure you have plenty of napkins.
